People are talking...

"Membership provides outreach opportunities for us. The chamber arranges job shadows with high school students interested in the medical field at our hospital. Students enjoy those opportunities very much."

- Andrea Leslie, President
Spectrum Health United Hospital

"Our Chamber is the conduit of communication; linking the business community to education, government, and healthcare. As a result, Greenville is a three-time recipient of MACP's Outstanding Chamber of the Year."

- Mike Knapp, Owner
Arrow Swift Printing & Office Supply

"By actively participating in Chamber events and networking opportunities, I can generate referrals, and grow my business. It's also a great way to keep in touch with current customers."

- Chris Town, Owner
LUXURY Janitorial Services

"Chamber staff keeps current and is prepared to connect us to valuable business tools and resources. They are also the voice of business when it comes to communicating future workforce needs ."

- Ted Bush
Greenville Tool & Die

Membership investment is calculated using a formula based on the number of employees within your organization as well as the business classification.

This formula is modeled after a majority of chambers and similar member organizations across the country.

Our bylaws allow for a yearly increase in membership dues based on the Consumer Price Index (CPI).
